

SICA hosts 'Expressions of a Town' October 12-17

Long Branch — Expressions of a Town, a multi-media exhibit featuring art created by professional, non-professional, and student artists residing in Shrewsbury, will be on view at The Shore Institute for Contemporary Arts (SICA), in Long Branch, from October 12 - 17. The gala opening event will take place on Saturday, October 15, from 4-8 p.m.

SICA is located at 20 Third Avenue in Long Branch. For more information please call 732.263.1121 or visit www.sica.org.

Gallery hours are as follows: Monday and Tuesday closed, Wednesday 1-5 p.m., Thursday 1-5 p.m., Friday 11-8 p.m., Saturday 11-6 p.m. and Sunday 1-5 p.m.

Conceived by Clare DiPaolo, visual artist and art teacher at Shrewsbury Borough School, Expressions of a Town is the second event to take place this year celebrating Shrewsbury and its historic and cultural roots. Paintings, drawings, sculpture and photography, as well as musical performances, are part of the event, which also includes an exhibit by several generations of artists within the same family. The event is sponsored by the Shrewsbury Foundation for the Arts, a non-profit corporation dedicated to the promotion and support of the arts in the community.

SICA, is a non-profit corporation whose purpose is to establish a uniquely stimulating and creative environment in which to experience the contemporary arts. The primary goal of the center is to increase the general public's accessibility, awareness and appreciation of the contemporary arts in central New Jersey. For more information on SICA, visit www.sica.org.

A piece from "Expressions of the Town," an exhibit of Shrewsbury artists.

A piece from "Expressions of the Town," an exhibit of Shrewsbury